

7. Finally, go situated. We have been on a six day problem so didn't have time to write. Just now I'm writing by candle light on my stomach in a pup tent. We have one more fifteen day problem then manumers will be over. We have been doing an awful lot of walking a lot of it in the rain. Also sleeping in the rain, on wet ground and with wet clothes and no fires. All of the walking with a fifty pound pack on our backs. It's tough plenty tough. I'm writing now just in case I can't write later, no telling when we'll pull out I'll write, tomorrow or Sun. if possible in the meantime you write to me at once, if we want to hear from you. My address is on the other side
