

So, we are pulling
out tomorrow at 4 A.M.
Don't know where. I'm sending you Fris. present please forward it on to him if you know where they are.

It is a wrist
watch I think he'll
like.

My greetings may be a little early but don't know where we are going, and it may be my last opportunity
to send any mail.

Changed my mind about Fris package I'm sending it on to him instead.

We are going on some sort of special guard duty somewhere in this vicinity. Don't worry it isn't anything. I'll write soon as we get stationed. We have been in barracks four days, and now we have to leave them and go back to pup tents.

Chances are we will be either at Charlotte or Raleigh.

Let me know if you received the packages. My address will remain the same.
