

Jo.

In my letter I forgot to tell you that my address remains the same. I don't believe we will be here long enough to bother having our mail forwarded here. It will simplify things to just let them be as they are. Even if it does take a little longer by leaving it that way.

It's raining cats & dogs.

Bye now Peto