

Africa
Jan. 3, 1943

Dear Sis,

Received your letter dated Dec. 3. You tell <sup>me</sup> that you haven't heard from me. I'm quite sure, that by this date you know of my whereabouts.

You will find a money order for the amount of ninety dollars, enclosed in this letter. After thinking it over I think I would rather <sup>you</sup> put the money that is going home, in a bank account, instead of what we had planned. Because when I return I will probably need money at once, to make a start, or at least until I get straightened out. By putting the money in a bank account, we will do away with all the red tape, we would have to put up with otherwise.

Don't you think it best that way?

I have enlarged the amount of the allotment to the limit, which is somewhere around forty dollars.

Go, how did Santa Claus treat you this year? Did you go home for Christmas?

I received a pen and pencil set

last week from the Wedge Local. Perhaps
you can notice the
difference, in writing
with the new pen now.
It is an Eversharp.

It has been quite
cool for some time now.
But not unbearable.

I have written
three sheets and said
nothing. I better quit
'cause I could go on
and on and still
say nothing.

I sure would like
to hear from you.
Remember write ~~via~~ <sup>via</sup>
airmail. I will do likewise soon as
stamps become available.

As ever, your brother
Gito