Dear Jo,
Received your letter dated the 15th of last month. Believe it or not both first and second parts of the letter arrived on the same day, and I unconsciously opened the first part first.

There is something on my mind I like to be relieved of it. What is the size of the allotment you are receiving? And when were the first installments paid?

Something else, I'd like for you to send Carrie $50 (fifty dollars) with my compliments and good wishes. Tell her it is for her and the baby. I'd appreciate if you would pick an opportune time to send her the money. Use your own discretion.

In a few day I will celebrate my second anniversary in the Army. It seems a lifetime. At the present it seems as though we have known no other life.

I haven't heard from the folks in some time. Are they all well?

This is all I have for the present. Will write again soon.

Your brother
Riso
